

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Student Code of Conduct

Version:	2/01 March 2010
Effective from:	01 March 2010
Approval date by SMT
Effect of changes on:	Student handbook, compliance letters (warning letters), Termination Policy

I. PURPOSE:

It is recognised that Guildhall College has the right to protect its educational purpose and its students from the irresponsible conduct of others. In order to insure this right, the College finds it necessary to set forth the following regulations that require student compliance for the welfare of the College community.

II. PROCEDURE:

Students who are alleged to have violated one or more of the regulations stated in this Code of Conduct may be charged with the violation(s) in accordance with Guildhall College Disciplinary Procedures. This Code of Conduct shall apply to all College students representing the College at events, whether on or off the College campuses. The College may exercise its discretion to not officially charge students with violations of this Code of Conduct in the event that viable alternatives to Disciplinary action are appropriate.

The Student Code of Conduct addresses the following areas:

1. Academic Dishonesty

Academic Dishonesty includes, but is not limited to the following:

- Cheating on an examination;
- Receiving help from others in work to be submitted, if contrary to the stated rules of the course;
- Plagiarising, that is, the taking and claiming as one's own the ideas, writings, or work of another, without citing the sources; submitting work from another course unless permitted by the instructor; stealing examinations or course materials; falsifying records;
- Assisting anyone to do any of the above.

In the event that students are suspected of classroom cheating, plagiarism, or otherwise misrepresenting their work, they will be subject to procedural due process.

2. On Campus Activities And Events

Use of College facilities is prohibited on any of the Guildhall campuses except in an area designated by the proper College authority and subject to any limitations and provisions established by an appropriate College official (i.e., outdoor concerts, student rallies, outside speakers).
